Webmedx Announces That VP Susan Lucci is Among ADVANCE's 2010 Top 10 in HIM

Lucci is recognized for her dedication, commitment, work ethic and initiative in the medical transcription industry.

Atlanta and Nashville, TN (April 13, 2010) – Webmedx, the fourth largest medical transcription service provider in the U.S. and the only leading company to employ a 100% domestic workforce, proudly announces that Susan Lucci, RHIT, CMT, AHDI-F, has been honored with the prestigious "Top 10 in HIM" award from ADVANCE for Health Information Professionals. The publication's annual recognition of the top 10 professionals in health information management (HIM) honors outstanding individuals who embody the dedication, commitment, work ethic and initiative that are critical to the success of the industry.

As the Webmedx Vice President of Field Operations, Lucci has national leadership responsibility for day-to-day customer operations alongside the delivery of new technology and service capabilities to those customers, according to Jay Cannon, President and COO, Webmedx. In addition, Lucci has twenty-five years of experience in (HIM) and medical transcription, and currently serves as the 2009-2010 President of the Association for Healthcare Documentation Integrity (AHDI). Her career in HIM has spanned numerous roles, including coding and utilization management. After 15 years in the MT field, she is a strong proponent and leader of the profession's need to continually improve and adapt according to new technology.

"This is a highly rewarding industry and it plays an important role in healthcare," says Lucci. "For that reason, I became active in AHDI and ultimately took on a great deal of responsibility and leadership. Similarly, I joined Webmedx due to the fact that the company is a recognized thought leader in the medical transcription and clinical documentation sector."

According to Cannon, Lucci's knowledge of the industry and her proactive approach to embracing new technology make her an invaluable member of the Webmedx team. "We are extremely proud of Susan's achievements and fortunate to have her guidance as we move forward in the evolution of transcription," he adds.
